

THE NEWS.

CYNTHIANA, KY.
THURSDAY, - - - SEPTEMBER 13.

The last Statesman contains a lame attempt at a refutation of our statement that General Cass is a member of the abolition party, and, as is common among the conductors of the Sag Nicht press, shirks the main point at issue, and contents himself with charging the Know-Nothings with being abolitionists, and also charging all, at least a majority, of the State officers recently elected by the people of Kentucky with being abolitionists.

This is a grave charge, and one that should not be lightly and recklessly made, but only after mature reflection, and then it should be accompanied with proof—that proof should be plain, unvarnished, undeniable facts. Until our neighbor produces such proof, he must pardon us for believing that he labors under a mistake. As regards abolitionism being a principle ingredient of the American party, or that that party is in manner, part or feature tinged or affiliated with abolitionism we emphatically deny. If such was the case would not the abolitionists be the first to know that fact? If they knew it, would they be found standing in the ranks of our opponents? We opine not. Look for a moment at the position of the three great political parties.

The American party is the Sebastopol before which the allied forces of the Sag Nichts and abolitionists are drawn up. They are united for one purpose—that of putting down Americanism. Supposing that they have not fused, and that they are, politically, like the allied forces in the Crimea—of different lands and different tongues—advocating different political doctrines—(we hope they do)—are the Americans, because the abolitionists and the Sag Nichts disagree in politics; when they are both drawn up in battle array against us; when we are defending ourselves from the attacks of both, are we to count them our friends, because their batteries are planted on our Northern side, while those of the Sag Nichts play upon us from the South? Nay, verily. Now for the proof that they do occupy this position—that they both are fighting against us. Please look for one instant at a few facts:

Look at the New England States.—In the campaign of 1852 they contained but two Whig or anti-Democratic States. What position does New England now occupy? They are Democratic still, yet who are her leaders? Wilson, Chase, and Sumner. How does Iowa, Wisconsin, and Illinois stand. The Democrats claim those States, yet Durkee, Harland and Trumbull are their leading spirits. We say they are leading spirits because the Democrats of those States have elected them all to Congress? And they are all open and avowed abolitionists! The Statesman cannot deny it—DARE not do so. Now for the proof of their opposition to the Americans. Here is an extract from the pronouncements of the Democratic State Central Committee:

"Know-Nothingism is a veil covering anti-slavery. Fifteen Northern States repudiate the Philadelphia platform. Fourteen Southern States have voted to vote against it."

The great peculiarity in this extract is that in the first paragraph they assert that "Know-Nothingism is a veil covering anti-slavery," and in the succeeding paragraph prove (?) it by saying that "FIFTEEN NORTHERN STATES REPUDIATE THE PHILADELPHIA PLATFORM!" They intended to say that the Know-Nothings are anti-slavery. Now the National Era, the organ of the BONA FIDE abolitionists, says:

"The honest friends of freedom must put down Know-Nothingism, or Know-Nothingism will put them down. The free States must reject Know-Nothingism, or Know-Nothingism will irretrievably divide them, and place them under the heel of the slave power."

Can the Statesman now deny that, if the abolitionists and the Sag Nichts are not affiliated, they are both fighting against us? The Sag Nichts and they, ally may settle their family difference, amongst themselves, with that we have nothing to do, but we shall not acknowledge any party as our friend, who is waging an open war against us.

Our press is free and fearless.—Not all the know-nothings this side of where they are going, can silence its voice. [Sag-Nicht paper.] Yes, if calling their opponents "murderers," "midnight assassins," "Thugs," "Hindoes," and like delectable names; if blackguarding respectable and virtuous ladies, who as tokens of respect, present goblets and flags to American editors, are specimens of their freedom and fearlessness, we perfectly agree with our neighbor. If no respect for decency, and no sense of shame, can silence their voice, then indeed the know-nothings cannot hope to do it.

Harpers and Putnam's Magazines for September, have been received by Magee. Both abound with the richest and choicest reading.

Lexington Fair—Cynthia's Abundant!
The annual Fair of the Kentucky Agricultural and Mechanical Association, commenced at Lexington, on Tuesday. We learn that the display of fine things was unusually brilliant. Our enterprising fellow-townsmen, H. F. Cromwell, entered a fine carriage and a wagon, both of which were manufactured at his extensive establishment in this place.—The carriage was manufactured for one of our citizens, and it was not determined to exhibit this carriage until one day last week. Mr. C. is now manufacturing a premium carriage which will certainly eclipse anything of the kind ever made in Kentucky or the Union.

We have understood that it was remarked on the fair grounds, that "it was ridiculous that the hoop-pole county should take a premium on fine carriages." Hoop-pole county, indeed! The individual who made the remark had better come down and take a look over Harrison county, and we promise him that if he finds a single "hoop-pole" in Harrison county, some honest man will "wear it out" on him.

Harrison county can boast of better farmers who raise better corn and wheat, horses, mules, cattle, hogs, sheep, and, last, though not least, better and prettier girls and boys than both Bourbon and Fayette combined! Our mechanics can do better work and make more money than any body's mechanics; and Harrison county contains more honest men than any other county of its size in Ky. Hoop-pole county! We'll bet the remark was made by some dandy who never has nor never will ride in a fine carriage, and who doesn't possess a clean shirt of his own.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Messrs. C. T. Delling & Co. have opened a new clothing store in the building adjoining the residence of L. Oxley, Esq. They advertise a large stock of fall and winter clothing. Give them a call. Messrs. Shackelford & Howerton, of Paris, advertise their fall and winter stock of dry-goods. Persons going to Paris to purchase goods, would no doubt do well to give them a call.

Concert To-Night!
The "Old Virginia Brothers" will give a concert at the Court-house to-night, Wednesday, Sept. 12th. They gave an entertainment last night, which was very well attended. The people of Cynthia have not enjoyed so rich a treat for a long time.

That Hat!—John L. Magee has presented us with an editorial hat. Magee has the fall fashions of hats, which are decidedly rich. He also keeps an extensive assortment of ladies and gents' shoes, boots, &c., together with a fine lot of useful and valuable books, stationery, &c.

We learn that the temperance picnic at Falmouth, on the 4th inst., was a pretty good little affair, although rain poured down in torrents all day. Col. R. H. Buckley made an able speech in favor of temperance.

County Court Day.
On Monday last, county court day, a great many people came to town, and everybody appeared to be in excellent spirits, and to have plenty of money.

A good amount of stock was sold, at pretty fair prices. John A. Kellar, Esq., auctioneer, sold several lots of mules, cattle, horses, &c., at prices which were considered pretty good. The usual amount of county business was transacted.

The yellow fever is still raging to a fearful extent at Norfolk, Portsmouth, and other places in Virginia. The people are dying by scores. The citizens of Baltimore, Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Washington, and other places have raised thousands of dollars, and sent on to the relief of the sufferers. Besides the numerous physicians and nurses have gone to their relief.

FRUIT CANS.—If you want to eat green fruit next winter, call at Martin's, and get some of his self-sealing cans.—They are just the thing to keep fruit in its natural state, which is certainly a great luxury.

Martin also keeps an excellent quality of chewing tobacco, as well as the finest quality of cigars. We have tried them.

ACCIDENT.—A breakman, whose name we could not learn, was knocked off the top of a freight train, as it was passing over the bridge, one mile below town, at noon yesterday. He was injured severely, but not fatally.

The truth is quite as bad as that we published. [Democrat.]

The truth which "is quite as bad as that" mistake which the Democrat published, is what honest men call an UNTRUTH.

A minister should never be a partizan. [Yeoman.] Nor an ass should never be an editor.

A Colt Show!
By invitation, we attended a colt show last Saturday, at the farm of Mr. David Dills, about five miles from Cynthia. The colts shown were sired by SAR HIGHLANDER, a beautiful stallion belonging to Mr. Dills; and the owner of the best horse colt was to receive a premium of a ten-dollar silver cup, and season to the owner of the best mare colt.

At 12 M., four of the very best of the horse colts were brought out, neatly caparisoned with fancy bridles, and exhibited. After a lapse of half an hour, during which time the fine points of the animals were discussed, the judges gave the blue ribbon and the silver cup to the colt belonging to MILTON J. RANKIN.

In a short time the mare colts were introduced to the crowd and judges.—The colt belonging to Mr. Lewis Veatch, received the award, to the satisfaction of quite a number of the friends of the gentleman.

The lot of colts all round were very fine; and fully sustained the reputation of Star Highlander. After the fun and excitement of the colt show, Mr. Dills invited all present to dine with him. The crowd repaired to the table immediately, and found it loaded with all the luxuries of the season. Mr. Dills has a fine farm, and displays great taste in its management.

It is amusing to read the juggling in the New York conventions on the slavery question.—[Lou. Democrat.]

Not near as amusing as to have an Irish bullet in one's body.

We see that FRENCH, of the Georgetown Herald, whose love of mean whiskey is only excelled by his love for "de fair portion ob de culled population," has been having "a high old time" among the "niggers." The darkies of that ilk have had a grand wedding, and in reading the long account of "de affair" in the Herald, we positively could not learn but what FRENCH was one the party. Well, everybody to his taste.

The editor of the News can write and publish a lie without flinching. It is news here that Harney was either shot or shot at. The editor of the Journal, though not exactly the author of this falsehood; is the cause of it; and when the poor devil of the News has to hand out some of that surplus merit.—[Lou. Democrat.]

The editor of the Democrat cannot write and publish a truth under any circumstances. His denial of the fact of being shot or shot at, therefore, amounts to nothing. We are afraid that when the poor creature of the Democrat has to answer for his wickednesses perpetrated in the flesh, he will have no friend "to hand out surplus merit," unless the Pope should graciously interfere in his behalf. We suspect he will need the intercession of some one, for, judging from his late warlike visit to the editor of the Journal, his end bids fair to come in close proximity to that of a rope.

Are they (protestant clergy) afraid to meet the Catholic clergy in an open field, a fair discussion? [Yeoman.]

NO! It is the latter who are afraid, and no one is better aware of that fact than the editor of the Yeoman. We shouldn't hold him responsible, however, for his slanders of the protestant clergy, because he has learned to lie so much in his attacks on the "Frankfort Clique," that if he were to tell one truth on any subject, it would turn his stomach.

COLT SHOW NEXT SATURDAY.—We are requested to say that there will be a Colt show at Cynthia, on Saturday, Sept. 1st.—[Cynthia News.]

Bets run high that the editor of the News will take the first premium.—[Wayville Express.]

The show came off, and the gentlemen who bet on our taking the first premium lost their money, for the junior of the Express was entered, and being the most promising specimen of the genus ass on the field, the premium was awarded to him. We are happy to inform our Sag Nicht stock-growing friends that they will find his sire, "Old Spectacles," at the stables of Beverly L. Clark, up Salt river.

What is the Sag Nicht Press of Kentucky coming to? STANTON, of the Express, has turned preacher. His son has eschewed politics—fallen in love—and is now engaged in "writing sonnets to his mistress's eyebrows." TAYLOR, of the Statesman has retired in disgust.—The Yeoman man has turned blackguard and is abusing the Protestant Clergy.—The Democrat man has been shot in the—flesh, and GIBBONS, of the Plow-Boy is on a drunk. TWYMAN has been over in Indiana feeling the pulse of the Abolitionists. What do they mean?

Well, the only mistake in our assertion about the Catholic church in New Albany was in relation to the time when the outrage was committed.—Democrat.

The editor of the Democrat never is in the habit of making but THREE mistakes when he writes anything, and they are, a mistake as to TIME—one as to PLACE—and one as to FACT.

In the time of the old paths in this country all the States were slave States. [Democrat.] The path that the editor of the Democrat took, when he made his hasty exit from the Journal office, led, we suppose, to a State of SAFETY.

CONCERT AT RUDDELL'S MILLS.—The "Old Virginia Brothers" will give one of their inimitable concerts at Ruddell's Mills, on this Thursday evening, Sept. 13th. We bespeak for them a full house.

It will be seen by the prospectus in another column, that W. W. Gruelle, Esq., proposes to publish in the city of Augusta, Bracken county, Ky., a weekly journal, to be entitled the "True American." Mr. Gruelle is well known in this vicinity, and has excellent qualifications, and we doubt not by strict attention to business, he can succeed beyond even his own expectations.

Come in, everybody, and give us a call, and see a live know-nothing in a natural state. [Cynthia News.]

A natural know-nothing in a live state we suppose you mean. [Statesman.]

We meant what we said, which is, a man who loves his own country better than he does Ireland, Germany, or the Pope of Rome.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Lucy CHAMBERS ZIMMERMAN, the estimable lady of the editor of the Danville Tribune, died on the 2d inst.

We were the recipient of a couple of excellent 'jumps' from the bar of that model hotel, the Varney House, on Monday last.

P. P. A. Biss, Esq., has been appointed Assistant Secretary of State.

Arison, the torpedo man, was put upon his second trial, at Cincinnati, on Monday last.

ONE WEEK LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE AFRICA!

HALIFAX, Tuesday, Sept. 11
The steamship Africa arrived here this morning, with Liverpool dates of the 1st, being one week later.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

We have nothing from the seat of war except details of previous news.

Official dispatches show the battle of Tchernaya to have been an allied victory. The battle lasted three hours.—The Russians gained the heights three times, but were successively driven back. The Russian loss was three thousand killed and two thousand wounded and taken prisoners. The allied loss was fifteen hundred. Another Russian attack was looked for near the cemetery.

The allies were preparing cavalry to cross the Tchernaya.

Omer Pasha definitely takes the command in Asia.

There is no intelligence from the Black Sea or Kara.

It was rumored in Paris that Queen Isabella, of Spain, was about to abdicate.

The Prussian Circular says that the Germanic policy is unchanged on the Eastern question.

Generals Simpson and Pellissier report that the Russian attack upon the Tchernaya was a deliberate attempt to raise the siege of Sebastopol. Documents were found on a dead Russian General, showing that if they had taken the heights a further attack from four points was to have been made.

Simpson estimates the Russian force at 55,000 infantry, 6,000 cavalry, and 160 guns. The French had only 12,000 men and four batteries engaged, and the Sardinians 4,500 men and 24 guns, while the enemy had only one battery.

The Russians carried the bridge and crowned the heights three times, with great gallantry, but were repulsed, and the retreat was covered by the Russian batteries.

Pellissier calls the French loss 15 officers killed and 53 wounded; 172 men killed, 150 missing, and 1,160 wounded. The Sardinian loss was 250. The Russian loss was 3,000 killed, 5,000 wounded, and 1,800 made prisoners.

General Simpson says that the Redan and Malakoff were bombarded on the 17th with as much effect as was anticipated.

Gortschakoff telegraphs that on the night of the 27th affairs were unchanged, but that the fire of the allies was occasionally very heavy.

Private letters state that the Russian loss in Sweaborg was not more than fifty killed, and that the batteries were uninjured.

In reply to Austrian remonstrances, Great Britain is understood to have said that the question of nationalities should not be introduced for the present, and the foreign legion should be removed further from the Austrian frontier.

The Irish potato crop on the whole was satisfactory.

The French news is unimportant.—The crops were satisfactory.

In Belgium a Commissioner had been appointed to raise the tariffs, and the same subject was under consideration in Spain.

A Paris rumor states that the involuntary abdication of Isabella of Spain may be looked for. The export of breadstuffs is prohibited from the Roman States.

Advices from India report a formidable insurrection among the Santals and other tribes in Bengal. The rebellion was from thirty thousand to fifty thousand strong, and was destroying everything European. There was no military in the neighborhood.

In China the insurgents were losing ground in the north.

Omar Pasha was to leave for Treb-zond on the 21st ult., to take command in Asia.
